Weston-super-Mare

i

WC

Head for the seafront where you can walk along the Grand Pier boardwalk, visit the shops and eateries at the shore end and also enjoy some of the regular free entertainment.

Take a ride on the Land Train (£) down to the Miniature Railway and Putting Green (£) or to the Marine Lake (where the tide is always in) or visit the SeaQuarium (£) which stands on its own pier - the first built in almost a century.

Away from the beach there's crazy golf (£) and family friendly museums.

To get to the Helicopter museum, which houses the largest helicopter collection in the world (£), take bus 126 towards Wells from Marine Parade (13 minutes).

Take the 112 bus from Weston High Street (hourly, on the hour).

Last bus back from Burnham: 22.25 (Mon-Sat)
20.07 (Sun)

Return to Weston

Why not take in an early evening show at the Playhouse (tel: 01934 645544) followed by a fish and chip supper?

Extend your trip

Take bus 112 from Weston and stop off at Brean (30 minutes) before continuing to Burnham (17 minutes). In Brean, either climb up to the 19th Century fort (free) - for spectacular coastal views, wildlife and flowers or visit Brean Leisure Park with 30 rides, roundabouts, roller coasters, pools and waterslides (free entry but pay as you ride).

Burnham-on-Sea

i

WC

Burnham-on-Sea is famous for its unique nine-legged lighthouse and also boasts probably the shortest pier in the country in the form of the Pavilion.

Head straight for the seven miles of sandy beaches - which extend up to Berrow and Brean - for donkey rides, sandcastle building, kite flying or just unwinding with an ice-cream and views of Bridgwater Bay and the Welsh coast.

Apex Leisure and Wildlife Park (free), off Marine Drive in Burnham is a 15 minute level walk from the TIC and has a skate park, a children's play area and walks around the lake for a spot of duck feeding, ask at the TIC for details.
